Old Plan, New Interruptions

Acts 10:44-48

Our CARITAS guests will soon arrive! On Saturday morning we will make the final preparations for families experiencing homelessness to spend the next week at Grace Baptist Church. If you haven't yet signed on to help welcome and care for our guests next week, check the board in the hallway or connect with Cheryl Crawford. A recent visitor shared with me that the welcome he received on his first visit to Grace was the best and most authentic welcome he'd ever received at a church. Welcome and hospitality are a core part of our identity and are unique gifts of our congregation. I am grateful for all the ways we use these gifts to serve our community.

On Sunday, April 29, we will have an opportunity to look more deeply at our gifts as individuals and as a congregation. During Sunday School we will gather for a high quality video (created by Chad and Jesse Hudson) and presentation by the Puerto Rico Mission Team. We will worship, pray, proclaim the Word, and sing together at 11 am in the sanctuary. Then following worship, we will gather for a congregational lunch as we look at the gifts, talents, and assets of our community of faith and how God is inviting us to use these gifts to transform the world! In this asset mapping process we will name the gifts we see in our congregation and then connect the dots between them: how might these gifts be connected together and used for God's good in the world?

Our approach is based on Asset Based Community Development, which always starts with what is present, not what is lacking. It is a glass half-full approach. Building on the gifts and talents of individual people and the strengths of community, asset mapping builds relationships and opens up new possibilities. Asset mapping assumes a theology of abundance—God gives us all we need to do what God is inviting us to do and be as a congregation. Between now and April 29, I invite you to consider your gifts and assets: physical, individual, association, institutional, and economic. A resource to help you begin to think through your gifts is available here or outside the church office. I look forward to discovering anew the gifts and assets in our midst, imagining the possibilities that could come when we connect these assets together for the good of God's world, and considering where we would most want to invest our time, energy, and gifts in the future.

And if this whole process sounds a little crazy, I encourage you to “come and see!” I can promise you will be amazed at the abundance in our midst and you might even be surprised by the possibilities!

Grace and peace,

Courtney

CARITAS Needs

We are in need of three pack and plays and seven car seats for transporting children to showers. If you are able to assist with this, please contact Cheryl Crawford. Items can be dropped off in the corridor where long pew bench is.

CARITAS Setup & Family Hiking Day Trip

We'll gather at Grace at 8:45 a.m. to help setup for CARITAS on Saturday, April 28th. From there, we'll travel in our cars to hike or bike in and around Dorey Park located at 2999 Darbytown Road, Henrico, VA 23231. Pack your lunch, water bottles, hiking stick and plan to hike or bike a trail that fits your pace. GBC is providing trail mix and snack bars. We'll adventure in groups and return at a set time to have a picnic lunch and devotional time together. Please let Suzanne know if you'll be joining the fun by emailing her at family@gbconline.org or texting at 804.869.1184.

Caritas Families Coming to Grace April 28 - May 5

Our hosting week is fast approaching, and I am excited by the level of participation thus far. There is still opportunity to get involved in hosting families experiencing homelessness, AND you don't have to be a member to get involved, we welcome all who want to serve. Keep in mind that this will probably be the last year we host Caritas in our church, so don't miss this opportunity to serve.

We still need some folks for overnight duty, shower transport and laundry. The iconic Caritas sign up board is in the back hallway, so give it a look to see where you might find a fit. The names and contact information of the coordinators are posted on the board if you have any questions.

The dinner menus have been finalized, and here they are for your consumption (pun intended):

Saturday night - tacos by the Deacons

Sunday night - spaghetti by the Youth

Monday night - cookout by Adult IV

Tuesday night - fried chicken by the Jubilee class

Wednesday night - chili by 7th Street Christian Church

Thursday night - pizza by Cool Springs Baptist Church

Friday night - chicken Alfredo by Missions Commission

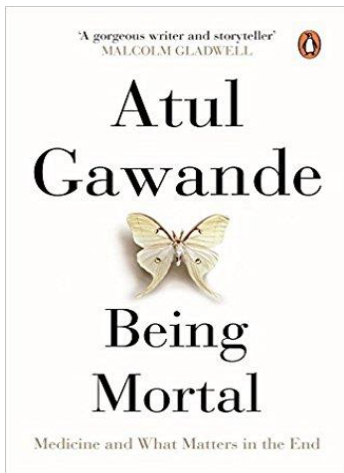

We won't know the mix of our guests until a few days before they arrive, so we don't know if we will need additional car seats or pack and play sets, but if you have any of these that meet the current safety standards, please have them at the ready just in case they are needed.

Fifth Sunday Offering April 29th

This quarterly donation has been designated to go to Caritas to support their diverse activities. We will have missions commission members stationed at the front and back sanctuary exits to accept your loose change; we can also accept checks if you want to drop those with us or in the offering plates. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

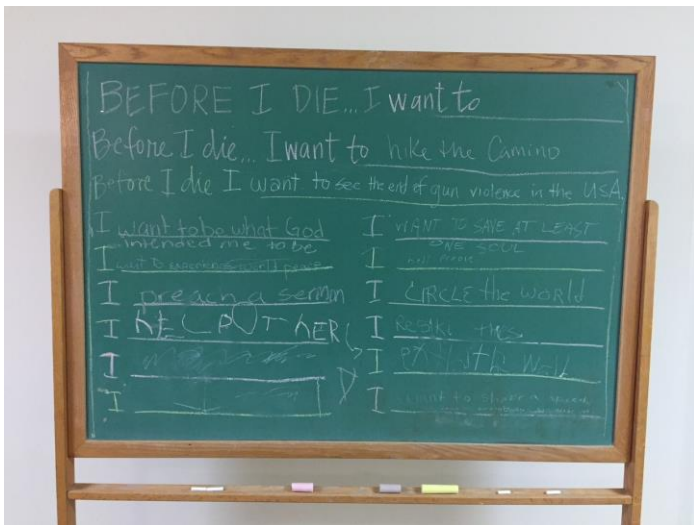

Being Mortal: Living the Questions

Throughout Lent our “Being Mortal” series focused on how we want to live and how we want to die. We heard from experts within our congregation on senior adult resources, dependence and autonomy, advanced directives and organ donation, downsizing, and making our final arrangements. During Sunday School we wrestled with significant questions around matters aging and what a death commensurate with our living might look like. I recently came across these words from Walter Brueggemann, “The prophetic tasks of the church are to tell the truth in a society that lives in illusion, grieve in a society that practices denial, and express hope in a society that lives in despair.” These words seem to sum up how we’ve approached these conversations on the reality of being mortal. We have told the truth about the fact that “no one gets out alive.” We have made space to grieve the losses we experience in this life. And even still, we have expressed hope that as Christians, death does not hold final victory.

Throughout these conversations, I have been grateful for your thoughtfulness and your willingness to contend with these challenging and complex topics through the lens of faith. Many of you have shared plans you are making using the “Five Wishes” document or other resources we’ve shared. Others have noted that you are having important conversations with those you love, and some even using the “Hello” game as a starting point. I am grateful for your courage and commitment to talk now with those you love about these matters! As we’ve said at virtually every session of this series, the decisions you make and conversations you have now are some of the greatest gifts you can give to those you love. And if you’ve written down some thoughts about your final arrangements—the kind of service you’d like, meaningful scriptures and music, or other details—we would be glad to keep a copy on file at the church. Just as the hospital and your physicians want to a copy of your advanced directives and other documents, your church (and family members) want to have your desires and preferences easily accessible when the time comes. And on that note, we have not talked much about the Grace Baptist Church Memorial Garden in our sessions, but remember that it is an option for you to consider. If you are contemplating a plot in our memorial garden and would like to learn more about reserving a plot, I am glad to talk with you more and share some information.

Last Wednesday night as the adults gathered in the Fellowship Hall discussed making our final arrangements, our children and youth were outside planting Easter flower bulbs in the memorial garden. As some discussed the reality of death and our desires in the face of death, our youngest friends were planting bulbs of new life, which will continue to bloom as symbols of hope and resurrection in the years ahead. During Eastertide may we continue to be a people who tell the truth in a society that lives in illusion, grieve in a society that practices denial, and express hope in a society that lives in despair!

Calling all Nursery Volunteers for Spring & Summer!

We need care givers for the youngest among us on Sundays during the Sunday School Hour and during the Worship Hour. Your presence, time, and attention to these sweet children provides care directly to these children and the families. WE are looking for a full slate of volunteers. If you can help for even one hour a month as a second to our Nursery Care Worker, we would be so appreciative. Please sign up to provide Nursery Care by adding your name to the Google Drive Sign Up Sheet.

To volunteer with any children and youth at Grace, you are required to have a background check. All results are confidential and any information shared is shredded once the check has been filed. To have a background check, forms are located in the nursery suite on the bulletin board and can be returned to Suzanne's box in the office. Thank you for extending your care in this way.

Youth Friday Gatherings

Part of building community in a youth group is providing a space for students to have fun and build memories together. This month we hope to provide a unique space for this to happen.

For the month of April we will have 3 Friday night gatherings for the youth. April 27th the youth will be going to The Escape Room 6:30-8:30. Cost for the escape room is $20.

Bible Brunch Buddies: The Legacy of Walter Rauschenbusch Noon, Wednesday, May 02, 2018

On May 2 at Noon the GBC BBB will spend time with WALTER RAUSCHENBUSCH, a Baptist pastor who lived 100 years ago and, yet, speaks words that ring of truth to this very day.

In his book Christianity and the Social Crisis, Rauschenbush acknowledges while the message of Jesus was aimed at individuals, the nature and outcome of his message was profoundly social. In today's phraseology we would say Rauschenbush was a 'liberation theologian'. In his own time, he was recognized as a proponent of the theological movement known as the 'social gospel'.

He identified three themes that were ripping apart the social fabric of America: the exploitation of labor, the crumbling of political democracy, and the decline of the moral climate. WOW! Does that not sound like 2018?

Come to BBB on Wednesday, May 2 to learn more about Rauschenbusch as Jane McNeil reports on the 3-day Seminar she attend at Mercer University in Atlanta. The seminar was sponsored by the Center for Theology and Public Life.

The Central VA Masterworks Chorale is excited to return to Grace Baptist Church on Friday, May 18, at 7:30pm. The Chorale will present "Sing For Joy!", featuring Leonard Bernstein's "Chichester Psalms" and Dan Forrest's "Jubilate Deo". Renowned Richmond organist, Daniel Stipe, will also perform. Artistic Director, Ryan Tibbetts, again takes the podium to conduct the Chorale and the orchestra.

The world premiere of Bernstein's "Chichester Psalms" took place in 1965 in New York's Philharmonic Hall, directed by the composer himself. The Forrest "Jubilate Deo" (Be Joyful in the Lord) is a contemporary piece set in seven different languages, including Latin, Hebrew, Arabic, Mandarin Chinese, Zulu, and Spanish. Each movement combines some of the characteristics of its language-group's musical culture, and closes with a movement combining several of these languages with English.

Please plan to attend and enjoy the classical as well as the contemporary with your entire family! Tickets are $10 in advance, $15 at the door, and $5 for students. Tickets are available at The Caboose

Market & Cafe in Ashland, online at the Chorale's website, www.cvamc.org, by phone at 1-800-838-3006, or from any Chorale member.

For questions or more information, please contact Becky Severin, Chorale President, at rvseverin@gmail.com or call 804-798-3999.
